

Advance Educators
Global Association of Theological Studies
The Teacher and His Responsibility

- 1) A teacher should be a man of truth; a man of influence; and a man of example.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 2) Everyone in this world will appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 3) In order to win the race, receive the prize, and hear the Lord's applause, approval, and acclamation teachers need to discharge their teaching ministry and responsibility with precision.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 4) The teacher is not responsible for what and how he teaches God's Word.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 5) Increased responsibility equals or calls for increased accountability.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 6) Sammy Stewart once said, "Our doctrine is best preserved when we become practitioners of our doctrine."
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 7) A chief mark of holiness is the ability to control one's tongue.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 8) "As words reveal the depth of a person's faith, so works show the depth of a person's maturity."
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 9) The four illustrations used by James all are small but direct something larger than themselves.
 - a) True
 - b) False
- 10) Teachers are held to the strictest of requirements by administration, leadership, followers, and God.

- a) True
- b) False